KELLY MCCLURE

100% Family Law

The McClure Law Group is a family law boutique practice rooted in compassion. Dedicated to protecting your family and fortune, the firm's founder and CEO, Kelly McClure (Family Law Board Certified), has more than 25 years of experience as a family-law attorney. McClure Law Group's seasoned legal team of attorneys and professionals works tirelessly to design the best possible results for each client's divorce, modifications, pre- and post-marital agreements, custody disputes, and mediation. McClure Law Group's highest concern is to preserve important family relationships while protecting assets that are too often depleted in high-conflict battles.

McClure began her career in tax law, building a knowledge base in tax codes and requirements that has become an asset in complex divorce cases. As McClure took on pro-bono cases with victims of domestic violence, the rewarding work inspired the transition of her practice to specialize in family law. From the simplest divorce to the high-net-worth clients with complex property- and asset-division cases-prominent executives, professional athletes, celebrities, and stay-at-home parents-find McClure's financial acumen an invaluable complement to the firm's decisive and efficient practice style. Having various levels of partners and associates, McClure Law Group's legal team can handle every level of a family law case efficiently and cost effectively.

McClure is a leading advocate of the collaborative law movement, a resolution process that can limit the financial and emotional burdens litigation brings. Clients who choose collaborative law benefit from McClure's credentialed expertise and a team of skilled professionals who apply interest-based negotiation to efficiently restructure family relationships and negotiate fair property division. When a client feels collaboration is not a viable option, McClure is a force to be reckoned with in the courtroom, armed with leading-edge technology, asset tracing, sophisticated trial strategy, and experience to passionately fight for the client's best outcome. A self-described thrill-seeker, outside of the courtroom, McClure enjoys scuba diving, skiing, snowboardin, and golfing with her attorney husband, Wade, and their four sons.
