

Kelly McClure Robert Epstein

100% FAMILY LAW

The McClure Law Group is a premier family law practice rooted in compassion and expertise. McClure Law Group's seasoned team of attorneys and professionals arrive at the office each day at 7:30 a.m., working zealously to achieve the best possible results for their clients' divorce, modifications, pre- and post-marital agreements, custody disputes, and any other family law matters. McClure Law Group's highest concern is to preserve important family relationships while protecting assets that are often depleted in high-conflict battles. With various levels of partners and associates, McClure Law Group's legal team can handle every level of a family law case efficiently and cost effectively. Best Lawyers Kelly McClure and Robert Epstein genuinely care about their clients and their families and expertly and compassionately guide them through what is, unarguably, one of the most difficult chapters of their lives.

Dedicated to protecting families and fortune, the firm's founder and CEO, Kelly McClure, has 25 plus years of experience as a family law attorney. Board Certified in Family Law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization, she began her career in tax law, building a knowledge base in tax codes and requirements that has become an asset in complex divorce cases. From the simplest divorce to high-net-worth clients with complex property- and asset-division cases—prominent executives, professional athletes, celebrities, or stay-at-home parents—find her experience and talent invaluable. Dynamic, tenacious, and energetic with a “bulldog approach” to fighting for her clients' rights, McClure has been recognized as a Best Family Lawyer in Dallas 13 times since 2003 by D Magazine and as a Texas Super Lawyers by Thomson Reuters for 15 years since 2003. Additional honors include 2016 Top 50 Female Attorney by Thomson Reuters, Women in Dallas, and the 2016 Modern Luxury magazine's Most Dynamic. A self-described thrill-seeker, outside of the courtroom McClure enjoys scuba diving, skiing, snowboarding, and golfing with her attorney husband, Wade, and their four sons.

Clients continually praise Epstein's strategic, insightful and “above and beyond” approach to family law cases. Also Board Certified in Family Law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization and a partner at the firm, he is driven in his desire to relieve the financial and emotional strain of divorce for his clients. A personal commitment to balance faith, family, and career helps him maintain a rational level of support for clients. Discreet and empathetic, he too is an expert negotiator known for achieving settlement agreements that at first seemed impossible to achieve. Approachable, yet intense, he makes wise decisions on behalf of clients of all income levels, thanks to his often-lauded pragmatism. A rock and roll enthusiast and military history buff, he is married, has one daughter, and is culturally and civically active in the community.

Both McClure and Epstein are leading advocates of collaborative law and can limit the financial and emotional burdens litigation brings. However, when a client feels collaboration is not a viable option, McClure and Epstein are forces to be reckoned with in the courtroom, armed with cutting-edge technology, sophisticated trial strategy, and experience to passionately fight for the best outcomes that their clients deserve.
