

KELLY McCLURE

100% Family Law

Tough. Tireless. Tenacious. (And she works hard, too.)

Imagine swimming 1.5 miles through the frigid and shark-infested waters off Alcatraz Island, then participating in a grueling 18-mile bike race, and finishing with a demanding eight-mile run covering a climb over sand and hundreds of uneven log steps. It was all in a day's play for award-winning family law attorney Kelly McClure, who qualified as one of the world's best triathletes to compete recently in San Francisco's annual relay, Escape from Alcatraz Triathlon. Along with this achievement, McClure was also named a top female attorney in Dallas in D Magazine in May 2010 and has been named a Best Lawyer in Dallas consecutively for the last six years in D Magazine. She has been named among the Top 50 Female Lawyers in Texas two years and a Texas Super Lawyer seven times (2002-2009) by Law & Politics magazine published in Texas Monthly. She was named among a select group of women in Modern Luxury, the Most Dynamic Women in Dallas, in 2006. McClure is the former president of the Family Law Section for the Dallas Bar Association, a recipient of the Outstanding Young Lawyer of Dallas Award, and a member of the Texas Academy of Family Law Specialists and the Dallas Alliance of Collaborative Professionals.

For more than two decades, McClure has channeled her passion for family law into helping couples successfully navigate their way through highly emotional and complex divorces. Clients appreciate her discretion as well as her extensive experience in tax law, her original career choice. She now focuses on family law with the added dimension of assisting clients with the tax implications of divorce. While McClure is no stranger to litigation, she is an avid proponent and leader of the collaborative law movement, a nonadversarial approach to family law that can minimize stress and additional financial burden. However, when litigation is necessary, McClure's high energy, drive, and experience make her difficult to beat in court. She and her attorney husband Wade and their four sons reside in Dallas but are always excited to travel to San Francisco or wherever a challenge takes them.
