Collaborative law represents the triumph of reason over anger in divorce.

WHAT IS COLLABORATIVE LAW? An alternative to the chaos of divorce litigation, collaborative law is based on open communication between the parties and their attorneys. Clients can negotiate a divorce, divide a marital estate or set up a parenting plan without trial.

LESS PAINFUL DIVORCE. Members of the Dallas Alliance of Collaborative Family Lawyers have found the least painful and most constructive way to divorce, thinking outside the box instead of taking a "one size fits all" approach.

EXPERIENCED PRACTITIONERS. The DACFL is the first collaborative law practice group in Texas. Its members are highly experienced family law attorneys from different firms who have undergone extensive training in collaborative law. All members are 2004 Texas Super Lawyers. All are board certified in family law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization, except as noted.

A SAFE PLACE. These highly skilled family lawyers conduct collaborative law negotiating sessions in which the views of both divorcing parties are respected.
